

Oralía "Oríe" Lucío

August 2, 1940 - May 1, 2018

Oralía Alfaro Lucío, beloved Wife, Mother, Mother-In-Law, and Aunt went to be with our heavenly Lord and reunite with her sons in heaven. Oralía was born on August 2, 1940. Oralía is survived by her loving husband Antonio R. Lucío, Sr. and daughter-in-law, Estella Lucío, numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Meliton and Elvira Alfaro, sons Antonio Jr. and Abel Lucío, brothers Roger and Ernest Alfaro, sisters Lucía Olivarri and Stella Orozco. Her motherly nature and warmth will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

Oralía graduated from Louis W. Fox Vocational and Technical School (Tech) in 1958. She received her Associates degree from Texas Southmost College in Brownsville, Tx. Oralía worked as a secretary for the Harlingen School District for many years. She then returned to San Antonio and went on to work at Jahn Dental for thirteen years. She later retired from UTHSC after 28 years. She was a devoted practicing Catholic and she had a great devotion to her favorite Patron Saint Jude.

The family wishes to express their appreciation and thanks to Dr. David J. Friedman, Dr. Francisco Barrera, Kindred Hospice and (especially her daughter-in-law, Estella for her tireless efforts to keep Oralía comfortable). In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
