

Oralia M. Rodriguez

June 5, 1935 - November 19, 2024

Oralia M. Rodriguez, a beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, November 19, 2024, at the age of 89. Born on June 5, 1935, in Piedras Negras, Coahuila, Mexico, to Jesus Munoz and Nicolasa Miranda, she was a radiant soul who touched the lives of many.

Oralia was preceded in death by her loving husband, Leonel Rodriguez; her parents; siblings Guadalupe Munoz and Rosaelia Munoz; son-in-law Francisco Castillo; and grandson Isak Rodriguez.

She is survived by her loving children: Rosalinda Castillo (Paco), Silvia Patricia Rodriguez, Laura Castillo (Beto), Eloisa Bass (Juan), Oralia Trevino (Betin), and Leonel Rodriguez (Alma). She is also survived by her cherished grandchildren: Laura, Francisco, Eric, Robert, Juan, Leonel, Sorleen, Rodolfo, Franco, Eloisa, Ingrid, Max, Sophia, Cecilia, Carlos, and Bobby. Additionally, she leaves behind numerous great-grandchildren and extended family.

Oralia grew up in Piedras Negras, Coahuila, Mexico. A spirited and generous community leader, she met and married Leonel Rodriguez, a United States Army Sergeant. Together, they raised their family in Mexico and later moved to San Antonio, Texas, in the early 1980s.

Oralia was a devoted Catholic whose life was a testament to her deep love for Jesus and Our Lady of Guadalupe. She found solace and joy in her faith while being a member of St. Lawrence Catholic Church in San Antonio where she was surrounded by loved ones. Her prayers were a constant source of comfort and strength for her family.

She was a gardening enthusiast and talented homemaker, known for her delicious cooking and warm hospitality. Her family gatherings were filled with laughter, love, and unforgettable memories. Our favorite memories are in her home (in Mexico & San Antonio) as she gathered her entire family over a feast she would prepare, followed by singing and dancing.

Oralia's legacy will live on in the hearts of her loved ones. She will be deeply missed.

“ Tuve el honor de conocer a Abuelita Oralia casi 27 años atras, gracias a mi esposo Jacobo. Mis hijas tuvieron la suerte de haber conocido a su bis-abulelita y haberla disfrutado. Abuelita Oralia siempre fue una mujer independiente, con un corazón bien grande, sencilla y amable. Ella nos demostraba mucho cariño y respeto. Tenia una sonrisa sincera y nos recibía con las manas abiertas. En varias ocasiones ella ayudo a nuestra familia a salir de apuros, con prestamos. Nosotros le estamos muy agradecidos. Yo la recuerdo como una mamá dedicada a su hija Paty. 66 años cuidandola, con paciencia, cariño, ternura y amor. Yo diría que ella sacrifico una gran parte de su vida por su hija, pero estoy muy segura que ella no pensaba así, y no lo cambiaría por nada del mundo. Gracias a DIOS, sus hijas e hijo, siempre estuvieron a su lado y su casa fue un lugar de reunion con toda la familia extendida creando muchos recuerdos. Yo admiro a Abuelita Oralia y con mi esposo e hijas la vamos a recordar como una mujer admirable con buenos modales y valores.

I didn't know what the name Oralia meant, therefore I googled it. Oralia means GOLD. Gold, a precious and sparkling treasure that illuminates life.
