

Orvelane Callender

February 15, 1924 - February 7, 2009

On February 7, 2009 Orvelane Callender joined her husband of 56 years in God's home. Known as "Lanie" to her friends and "Granny" to her family, she will be missed by many. Born February 15, 1924, Lanie lived through major history. After graduating from high school, she helped build the planes for WW II at Kelly AFB. There she met and married W.R. "Bill" Callender Jr. As members of Baptist Temple for almost 50 years, they both participated in the growth of their church. When Baptist Temple opened its school/daycare, Lanie was its first kindergarten teacher. Her primary job, however, was homemaker. Her eldest son said, "Her job was loving people". Orvelane Callender is survived by daughter, Billie Hoffmann; sons, W.R. "Rocky" Callender III and Bob Callender; grandchildren, Tracie Martin, Robert Hoffmann, Chelci Schaefer, Lindsay Callender, and Cherokee Carlson; great grandchildren, Chris Haas, Kevin Kropp, Blake Haas, Staci Higginbotham, Addisyn & Taylor Schaefer, and Braydon Reyes; great-great grandchildren, Garrett Haas, Greyson Roper Haas, and Rylee Higginbotham; as well as numerous nieces and nephews. Visitation with the family will be at Mission Park South from 4:30 pm to 6:30 pm Thursday, February 12, 2009 with services immediately following. A graveside memorial will be held Friday morning at 10:00 am at San Fernando Cemetery III.

Tribute Wall

CS

“ *Granny was an inspiring, loving, and strong woman. I miss you.
Thank you for loving me.*

Chelci Schaefer - September 16, 2011 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ My heart is with all of you. Granny was a wonderful person. Always kind and giving.

*Love to all.
Sherrye*

Sherrye Willmann - February 10, 2009 at 12:00 AM

VK

“ My thoughts and prayers are with ya'll. Granny was a wonderful loving lady. Gramps will be so glad to see her. Take care and God send.

Vicki Kanaly - February 10, 2009 at 12:00 AM