“ I always enjoyed Cookie coming out to my grandmother Ruby’s ranch to hunt doves. He never missed opening day until his later years. He loved to just walk and take shots as the opportunity arose, and he didn’t miss much. I used to donate any I got to him so he’d have enough to make a good meal. He was a good man. I enjoyed our times together and I miss him. Carey D. Weber.

“ Koch was a man of many talents during his life from servicing his country, owning a ice house and one of the best auto mechanic (including body work) you could find. In June 1960 he married my mother, Irene. They had a great life together going gambling in Los Vegas, fishing and dove hunting in Fredericksburg on my aunts farm with my brother, and cousins. His other favorite thing to do was dancing or honky-tonking as he called it. Every Friday and Saturday you would find him and mom out dancing. My husband, Mike, and I would go with them on some of the above ventures along with our kids. They were married for 36 years when mom passed. He is also survived by our three girls ((Katie and husband David, Kimberly O’Doherty, Kelly and husband Chris and eight great grandchildren. Osborn, we miss and love you❤️❤️❤️❤️ Claudia, Mike and Family
