“ Although I have only met him a few times through his wife, Oscar was always very funny and super kind. He was so nice when it came to helping me out with car troubles the few times that I needed it. He showed that he really cared about his job. Connie always shared funny stories about him and how he was the best Po-Po and I'll always remember how he would joke about giving Connie a hard time. I could tell he was a very loving husband and family man. I know he will truly be missed by everyone he's met. My heart goes out to his family and his wife. ❤️🌸
