“ When I think about Oscar I think about Tootsie, his beloved cat whom he loved very much. Meet Tootsie: She was very precious to Oscar. He frequently spoke of her. He got a kick out of watching her play with her imaginary friend, his words. He became animated when he laughingly described what took place during these "playtimes". Once when he was away from her, he wanted to talk to her on his cell phone--Oscar had me do the same during our many phone conversations and I would hear him laugh while describing Tootsie's reaction to my voice.
She is doing okay in her new forever home with Bryan, Oscar's friend. Thank you Bryan--Oscar would be very very happy Tootsie is loved and you are taking care of her.
Oscar. Later. C U when I C U. 🥹

“ My memories of Oscar: He loved life and he loved to laugh. When he gave a robust laugh, his face would wrinkle up which made him look like a little kid. I miss you my darling Oscar. Rest in peace. I love you. Later. ”

My life was made brighter by his friendship and love. So many crazy long conversations and laughter. He had the best sense of humor that always left me smiling. He was the kind friend who was always there to lend an ear and offer fatherly advice during difficult times.

I know he and my sweet Dora (aka: Cha Cha) are dancing together again and I can visualize them smiling at each other.

Rest easy my friend. We'll all laugh and hug again someday!

Till then I'll keep the memories in my heart always!

*Love,
Your "adopted daughter," Vina ❤️*
