“ Thank You Grandpa For All The Great Memories, And Good Laughs! I'm Going To Miss Your Kisses On My Forehead And Seeing You Pull Into My Driveway And Eating My Pecans. May You Rest In Peace And Watch Over Us. Love You Always Grandpa ❤️

“ My brother Paul could be very funny. When I was a little girl my mother would comb my hair in pigtails. Leave it to my brother to find a way to tease me because of my pigtails. He would run after me to pull my pigtails. I would scream and yell for my Mom or Grandmother. He would also make fun of my Grandmother's false teeth. My Grandmother would chase him with the Chancla. I have so many good memories. Even in my adulthood he helped me so much. I love him to the sky and back. I miss him very much. I have no one to call me every night. Rest In Peace Manito
