“ Pam was my dear friend for many years. we kept in touch frequently by phone, text and occasional letters. we would call each other and tease that we were "having coffee" just like in the old days when we were in nursing school together. She granted me the great honor of being godmother to her youngest son Kyle. we laughed and cried together over the years and I will treasure those moments forever. she loved her husband and family so much and would often speak of them when we visited. I did the same. we saw a lot of the world through the same lens. I look forward to keeping in touch with her family. may God comfort them now and in the future. farewell dear angel friend, we will meet again.
