

Pamela Joyce Longoria

November 29, 1949 - May 13, 2026

Pamela Joyce Longoria, known lovingly as Pam, passed away on May 13, 2026, in San Antonio, Texas, at the age of 76 after a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer.

Born on November 29, 1949, in Manchester, Iowa. Pam lived a life marked by intelligence, warmth, and quiet strength. She carried herself with dignity and grace in both ordinary moments and in challenging times.

After earning a Master of Library Science Degree at The University of Iowa, she moved to San Antonio, TX where she began a long and meaningful career with the San Antonio Library, where she served with professionalism and care until her retirement.

Outside of her career, Pam found joy in reading, walking, gardening, cooking, and cheering on the Iowa Hawkeyes football team, which she embraced with genuine enthusiasm.

She is survived by her husband of 34 years, John Longoria; stepdaughter, Monica Longoria (Michael Bailey); grandchildren, Alyssa “Nikki” Longoria, and Kennedy Bailey; great-grandchildren, Josyah Keolasy, Kingston Stonewall, and Athyna Joyce Keolasy. She is also survived by her brothers, Devlin Reinhold, Leif Reinhold, Neil Reinhold, as well as her cousin Sandra Nelson. She was preceded in death by her parents Francis and Audrey T. Reinhold, brother, Forest Reinhold.

Pam's life was enriched by the love and connection she gave to those around her. Her family and friends will remember her not only for what she accomplished, but for who she was; dependable, kind, and sincere. Her legacy will be one of devotion, learning, and enduring love.

The family would like to extend their heartfelt thanks to the team at VITAS Healthcare for the utmost care, compassion, and love shown to Pam and her family throughout her journey.
