

Pat Boyd

March 24, 1933 - November 18, 2018

Pat Boyd passed in her sleep, Nov 18 2018. Pat was born March 24th, 1933. She was a devoted Catholic and a parishioner of St. Matthew's Catholic Church. The daughter of Jack and Helen Hagan she grew up in San Angelo Texas. She would attend the University of Texas in Austin where she would meet a young man whom was enrolled at Southwest Texas State. She would marry Everett McDaniel (Dan) Boyd in the spring of 1954. They would move to Galveston that year where Dan attended medical school. In 1958 San Antonio would become home and where they would raise their family. Pat loved to travel and entertain. Throughout her life she was involved in many social and charitable activities including the Bexar County Medical Auxiliary, the Methodist Hospital Bluebirds, and her bridge group. Pat loved her home and always had a project in progress there. She had a keen eye for decorating and could turn the simplest room into a thing of beauty.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Everett M. Boyd, M.D. Pat is survived by her sons, Michael D. Boyd, Bill A. Boyd and Daniel H. Boyd and his wife, Linda; her grandson, James A. Boyd; her brother, Mike Hagan.
