“ was a friend for a long time , a great guy,talked to him at BIFS Burgers the friday night ,before he passed on saturday. Seemed fine that night. He made a lot of custom vans for a lot of disabled people, some were veterans. A hard working guy, a well respected business man . Sorry I missed his services, if I knew I would have been there. Raced with him in dallas at a Super Ford Meet years ago in his Fairmont. Rest In peace Pat

“ RIP my dear "old" friend. I always called you "old" because you were older than me. Because of you I became a big San Antonio Dragway person plus watching drag races in other states and now of TV. I've also become a NASCAR fan but the drags are much more exciting. My oldest son is the same way. Will miss our comments to each other on facebook, especially if we didn't agree on things. My sincere condolences goes to your wife, children and grandchildren. We will meet again one day and I will "beat" you at the dragway.
