

Patricia Colleen Calmbach

March 17, 1943 - May 7, 2017

Patricia Colleen Calmbach entered eternal life on May 8, 2017, at the age of 74 following a sudden and very short illness. Born to Walter and Patricia (Charlton) Calmbach on March 17, 1943, in San Antonio, Texas, Colleen loved San Antonio and the Texas Hill Country her whole life, never wanting another home. She attended St. Ann's and St. Paul's Catholic Schools, Our Lady of the Lake High School and went on to receive a Bachelor of Arts degree in organ performance from Our Lady of the Lake University. She delighted in cooking, sewing, crafting and gardening; and was a lifelong student and teacher of music and the arts. Her passion for music was second only to her love for her children and grandchildren, whom she adored with her every breath. Colleen is preceded in death by her mother and father, and nephew, David Reynolds. She is survived by her sister, Leslie (Calmbach) Reynolds and husband, Dr. Brian Reynolds of Dripping Springs, TX; four children from her first and only marriage to Richard Natalicchio (also surviving) including daughter, Patrice (Natalicchio) Powell and husband Cayce Powell of Brentwood, TN; daughter Dawn (Natalicchio) Hutcherson and husband Barry Hutcherson of Denton, TX; son Ricky (Natalicchio) Calmbach and wife Courtney Calmbach of Round Rock, TX; son Tony Natalicchio of Dallas, TX; and nine grandchildren: Colton Powell, Reece Powell, Cecily Powell, Brock Powell, Morgan Hutcherson, Natalie Hutcherson, Barrett Calmbach, Foster Calmbach and Bennett Calmbach.

A funeral mass will be held at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church on Monday, June 5, 2017, at 11 am. A time to visit with the family will begin at 9:30 am. The family requests light and bright colors be worn to the funeral; no black, please. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the National Mental Health Support Organization (NAMI) of San Antonio - <https://nami-sat.org/> .
