“ My heart is broken for you the Johnson family. There are no words that can make the pain any less. But, I am praying for you all that the Lord will pour out His peace, love, comfort, and strength during this difficult time. May He help you take each step every day for the days ahead. We, of the Ortega family (from Manchester Street) will continue to pray. All our love, Priscilla (Ortega) Parker

“ Dash – Inspired – by Alton Maiden
After death has come and gone, a tombstone sits for many to see.
But serves no more than a symbol of a person’s memory.
Under the person’s name it reads the date of birth – and the date the person passed.
But the more I think about the tombstone the only important thing is the dash.
Yes, I see the name of the person, but that I might forget.
I also read the date of birth and death, but even that might not stick.
But thinking about the person, I can’t but remember the dash
Because it represents a person’s life and that will always last.
So when you begin to chart your life, make sure you are on a positive path
Because people may forget your birth and death, but they will never forget your dash.
Remembering the Good Times ... God Bless You and Family ...
