“ Patty was a wonderful person. I've lived 2 blocks over from her on Bertetti Dr for over 30 years and when my 2 daughters were little back in the early 1990's she babysat them - Lucy Wood and Bianca "BB" Wood. She loved children and when I first met her, back in 1989, she asked was I related to the Wood's in Houston because her son worked for Wood Electrical Service and I told her that I was Ronnie Wood's sister. We thought that it was such a coincidence that in such a big city of San Antonio, that I happened to live only a few blocks away. Oftentimes, after the girls grew up, I would see her in the HEB on Marbach (both the old one and the new one) shopping and we would stop a bit in the aisle holding our baskets and gossip a little. All her friends in the neighborhood will miss her greatly. It was an unexpected loss and we all extend our sympathy to the family.
