

Patricia Mount Ligon

August 26, 1926 - February 22, 2006

Patricia Mount Ligon, born August 26, 1926, passed on February 22, 2006 at the age of 79 due to complications of Parkinson's disease. She was born in Des Moines, Iowa to parents Fred and Helen Mount. She graduated from Lincoln High School in Des Moines and was accepted to study at Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri. She received her Associates Degree in 1946 and was married to Charles Gregory Ligon soon after graduation. The couple moved to Texas after Charles received his Masters Degree from the University of Missouri. She was a long time resident of Helotes, Texas, since 1968 and owned several small businesses with her husband through the years. After Charles death in 1981, she gained employment with the University of Texas at San Antonio as an administrative assistant in food services. She retired from UTSA and enjoyed being at home with her grandchildren. She was an avid reader and particularly enjoyed mysteries and romance novels. She loved cooking and gardening. She is survived by her two sons Mark Ligon and Gary Ligon and her daughter Janet Lewis, son-in-law Michael Lewis, and grandchildren Alexandra Lewis and Christopher Lewis. Surviving siblings are Ray Mount of Mesa, Arizona, Fred Mount, Jr. of Des Moines, Iowa, and Terry Mount of Omaha, Nebraska.

“ *God's Garden
God looked around His garden
And found an empty place;
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And Lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew*
