

Patricia Parada Perez

February 25, 1954 - December 12, 2021

Patricia Parada Perez passed away on December 12, 2021 at her home in Castle Hills, Texas. She was born on February 25, 1954 in McAllen, Texas to Leoncio Parada and Evangelina Torres. Patricia was preceded in death by her father; and her twin baby sister, Sylvia Parada. She is survived by her mother; and her husband, Alfonso Perez; daughter, Lorena Codina; sisters, Yolanda Parada (Troy Eller), Palmira Parada (Refugio Urbina); brothers, Leo Parada (Martha), Jerry Parada; and nieces & nephews.

Patricia Parada Perez was a McAllen Texas native. After earning her nursing degree as licensed vocational nurse and working in the Texas Valley area she moved to Austin and eventually to San Antonio Texas. She changed her career from nursing to bail bonds. She met Alfonso Perez in San Antonio and they both started in the bail bonds business in south Texas. They managed through some tumultuous hard first years with her idea and his support. They created a thriving existing business in multiple counties. COPA & San Antonio Bail Bonds is a flourishing success that mirrors her tenacity. She managed to lead in an industry that was male dominated and be well respected by her contemporaries.

Patricia was a diligent dedicated hard worker with unwavering faith. She would start and end her day with her favorite daily prayers. She would be the first to say doing good deeds are better than just speaking of good deeds. Her life's struggles forged her strong character but also made her be attuned to the needs of the people around her.

Patricia loved to travel, decorate and learn to enjoy every moment. When possible, Patricia and Alfonso Perez vacationed on 4 continents and visited more than twenty countries. She ability to decorate showed at home or work but shined brightly when the holiday season came around. Her Christmas trees were special and memorable. She enjoyed her free time by going to go to the movie theater, shopping at the flea market for bargains or dining out then strolling thru the aisles of Home Depot.

Even though she left this world to early she lived a happy full life. She was cherished by many, loved by her family and blessed her husband with everlasting fond moments.

Patricia's life epitomizes how to persevere through life's adversities, of how to make a comeback in life and a great example of the American Dream.

– Alfonso Perez

“ My condolences to Alfonso and family. Patty will be greatly missed. She was such a beautiful soul. She was sweet, kind, generous, funny, and always helped those she loved. I will always remember her kindness and hospitality when my family and I would visit. I will remember her advice. I will miss seeing her every time I go to San Antonio. Aram, my mom and myself will miss her very much. Sending hugs to all the family and Alfonso.

“ Patricia was one of the sweetest people I've ever met. She was funny, witty, down to earth, and kept Alfonso in line. She will be greatly missed. I know that she's in heaven watching over all of us and keeping Alfonso I check! She will always be remember for her sense of humor and her smile. Now she's in heaven and doesn't have anymore pain. May she fly with the angles and look down on us everyday. My thoughts and prayers are with her husband Alfonzo and the the rest of her family. May they find peace in this difficult time.
