“ We will miss Pat especially her kind soul, generous heart and her perfect example of showing love and taking care of others outside her family. Pat was like a second mom to the Velasquez family and she fit in perfectly in our many family functions. She carried a ray of light with open arms for all our family members and friends. We will carry her in our hearts, memories and prayers. She was a Saint of a lady with a beautiful smile. God's Peace be with you and your family. Love you MOM 🌸

“ Patricia was my grandmother. She was loving, patient, kind, smart, and probably one of the most humble person I'll ever know. I have many memories from of her, one specific memory was going up Pikes Peak when I was younger. I was nervous on the bus going up the mountain and im sure she could tell because she pulled out a book “where the sidewalk ends” and said hey lets read this. Im sure it was partly in an effort to keep me distracted. I was about 10 years old and i remember even then being astonished by how caring and patient she was. She lived a long fulfilling life, with grandpa and even continued after. Now they are joined together in peace.

Yes together again and your grandpa was my most favorite principal ever! I'm 74 now but I knew your grandpa when I was in 3rd grade and I'm now 75! He retired after 45 years of teaching and that's a big thanks to both your grandparents for their encouragement.

*“ Pat was our neighbor. I remember she always had a kind word & smile and seemed to always be calm no matter what was going on. Later as a teen i admired her ability to juggle a large family and teaching career. She was a remarkable woman.
