“ Pat was my landlord when I lived at the house on Stillbrook. I had many medical issues and Pat was always a dear friend that helped me through them with his kind words and actions. I once had the opportunity to travel to France with Pat that I turned down regrettably because of work and tending to small children as a single mom. I will miss him.

“ I had known Pat since late 70s and during recent decades was my neighbor at office and saw him almost every day. He was a very low key private person very helpful to anyone who ran into him. Many would miss him. May his Soul rest in peace.

My brother Pat was a good guy. He had many lady friends but never married, stayed home and took care of our elderly mom. He passed fairly soon after she did.
