Patsy Sealy grew up in San Antonio and attended Edison High School. Together they raised their blended family in San Antonio and Boerne. Patsy and Richard built custom homes for several years in Boerne before Richard retired and they moved to San Antonio. She never missed an opportunity to take her grandchildren and great grandchildren to Sea World and Fiesta Texas and was always there to help them reach their goals. She was an extremely strong woman, who fiercely loved her family and lived independently until June of 2024.

The family would like to thank all the staff at Heritage Place of Boerne,

Blossom Assisted Living in Leon Springs, and Crest Hospice for their kindness and compassionate care of Patsy in her last days of life.
