

Patsy Josephine Thomas

October 16, 1938 - November 17, 2020

Patsy Josephine Thomas, 82, passed away in her San Antonio home on Tuesday, November 17, 2020 surrounded by her loving family. She was born as Patsy Josephine Garrett on October 16, 1938 in Pearsall, Texas.

Pat was a lover of books and was an avid reader. She enjoyed several forms of needlecraft, including needlepoint, quilting, and crochet. Pat loved going on vacations with her family to the beach or casino.

Pat was a great mother and a strong-willed person who persevered through health challenges and a progressive illness. Her extremely determined demeanor complemented her independent, unapologetic, and adventurous spirit.

She is predeceased by her loving husband of 55 years, Donald S. Thomas; brother, Al Garrett; and grandson, James Patrick Doyle.

Pat is survived by her dear sisters, Judy Willoughby and Mary Martin and her children, Sandra (Tim) Doyle, Deborah (Jerry) White, and Jeff (Rich Garcia) Thomas. She is also survived by her grandchildren whom she loved dearly, Matthew (Anna) White, Andrew (Rilian) White, Elizabeth Doyle, and great granddaughter Rowan White.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the San Antonio Food Bank.

“ Patsy was a kind, generous, and loving person. She truly cared about the well-being of others. From the moment we met, she welcomed my brother, myself, and our entire family with love and open arms. We have been blessed to have had her in our lives. She will be missed.
