“ My sincere condolences to Sarah, Paula and Judy. I will keep all of you in my prayers. I have so many happy memories of Charlie going all the way back to Charlo’s Philips 66. The way he would greet me and check my car with the warm greeting and the infectious smile. I will also miss my happy birthday calls at midnight. I love you Charlie and will miss you dearly. Until we meet again my sweet Charlie.

“ I worked with Charlie for 7 years at AIW from 96-03. He was a very hard and loyal worker and took his job seriously. He was known to lend a few dollars to others until payday and always had us laughing. He was such a character one guy even dressed up as him for Halloween and Charlie was so proud of that. We all loved it. I still randomly sing songs and phrases that I learned from Charlie. Thank you for everything Charlie. My condolences to the family.

“ I will miss my yearly birthday calls from Charlie. He would call every year at midnight to sing to me and that will never be forgotten. Ever since I was a little girl Charlie told me he was going to marry me and to tell the boys to watch out. My father, David Jones brought me to Charlie and Charlo’s house often as a little girl to swim in the the pool and to just hang out all the way up into my early twenties. I’ll always remember Charlie for his kind, funny and loving soul. Cheers to you Charlie and we all love you so much. Sending condolences to your family. Xoxo
