

Paul W. Delehanty

October 29, 1919 - September 2, 2008

Paul W. Delehanty, age 88, of New Braunfels passed away on September 2, 2008. Mr. Delehanty was a U.S. Army veteran of WWII and a member of VFW Post 4676, Universal City. He worked as a naval architect, most of his life, in ship design. Mr. Delehanty is survived by his wife, Helen Delehanty; stepson, Harold G. Bauman and wife, LaVerne; grandsons, Gregory W. Bauman Jennifer Larson and Darren P. Bauman and wife, Melissa and 3 great-grandchildren, Bailee, Colton and Madison.

Service

Visitation will be one hour before the chapel service which will be held at 3:00 PM on Thursday, September 4, 2008 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. Interment will follow in Mission Retama Memorial Park.

Tribute Wall

DM

“ Celebrating a life well lived. I will cherish the memories of Uncle Paul and his great wit. I could always count on getting a pearl of wisdom when ever we visited him. -- Jet

Diane F Minka - September 10, 2008 at 12:00 AM

EM

“ Dear Aunt Helen,
I was so sorry to hear about Uncle Paul. I wish I could give you a hug and kiss and give you my support at this difficult time. Please know that I am thinking of you and you are in my prayers. Love from your niece, Eleanor eleanor milnamow - September 03, 2008 at 12:00 AM