

Paul Frederick Heye

February 11, 1941 - May 4, 2012

Col. Paul F. Heye, USAF Ret., age 71, went to be with his Lord and Savior on May 4, 2012. He was born in San Antonio in February 1941.

Paul graduated from Central Catholic High School in 1958 and later from Texas A&M University in 1962. He continued to be an avid Aggie, supporting his university and his four children whom also became Aggie graduates. Paul served in the United States Air Force for 29 years, retiring as commander of Air Force NEWS at Kelly Air Force Base. In 1976, he was the first American given Die Goldene Zeile award for journalism in Germany. He was dedicated to serving his country.

A wonderful husband, father, and grandfather, Paul loved his family well. His life's other passion was his involvement in the Catholic Church. With many military moves, Paul volunteered in many parishes in many positions. He was ordained a Deacon in the Archdiocese of San Antonio on September 12, 1999, and served St. Brigid Catholic Church until his death. Paul truly lived his faith and blessed many lives.

Paul was preceded in death by his father, William Heye, mother, Alpha Kopplin Heye, and cherished grandson Trey Heye. Paul is survived by his adoring wife of 50 years, Mary Catherine Dunn Heye; sons: Paul F. Heye, Jr., and his wife Mary Jo, John Heye and his wife Eileen, Jeff Heye and his wife Amy; daughter Amy Heye Dunlap and her husband Brett; grandchildren: Christopher, Thomas, Ian, and Nicholas Heye; Megan and William Bunsey, Abby Heye; Will, Matthew, and Ellie Heye; Grady, Delaney, and Connor

Dunlap; brother Bill Heye and his wife Joan; sister Judy Free and her husband Granville; sister Joan Grandjean and her husband Gene; and many other loving family members and friends.

An exceptional man, husband, father, son, Opa, brother, uncle, and friend, Paul will be missed often and cherished always. The blessings he brought to us will continue in our hearts.
