

Paul Whiteman Hurley

August 19, 1930 - May 24, 2020

Paul Whiteman Hurley passed away peacefully in his sleep at Knopp Assisted Living and Memory Center of Fredericksburg, Texas at the age of 89 on Sunday, May 24, 2020. Paul was born in Butler, Pennsylvania and moved to San Antonio with his parents and siblings while in high school.

As he enjoyed sharing, Paul was offered an expense paid trip to Korea by the US Army, he took that trip and used it's benefits to earn a college degree in physics at St. Mary's University in San Antonio. Ultimately Paul used his education at Kelly Field and thoroughly enjoyed his career.

He was preceded in death by his wife of forty years, Alicia Torres Hurley, his parents, Aloysius Francis Patrick and Belva Winifred (Hindman) Hurley and his siblings, Francis Hurley, Jean Marie Weber and Patricia Agnes Woodlee. He was also preceded in death by sister-in-law, Pauline Guerrero and brother-in-law, Raymond Torres. Paul is survived by sisters-in-law, Julia Wilkerson and Virginia Hernandez and numerous nieces and nephews.

A Mass to celebrate Paul's life will be planned at a later date at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Fredericksburg, Texas.
