“ Paul was a wonderful father n law and grandpa to my girls. I always viewed him as a Dad. He was funny, kind and loving. Always there to lend a helping hand. Although, I was in the family too short of a time, I never stopped loving and respecting him. He will be missed by so many people. Paul, David, Trini, Alice, Bobby, Gilbert, Jenny, Valerie and all his other grandkids and great grandkids, Pam, Chris and Carol, I send my love and deepest condolences to you all. Your Dad/grandpa, was one of a kind. My prayers are with you all. All my love, Robbie Castano

“ My dad always wore a shirt and tie. I remember we would tease him about it. The community recognized him just by the way he dressed. He was dressed and prepared for each day, ready to face it, no matter what that day brought. Life brought him heartaches and suffering, but he was strong through it all. He did not back down and fought for what he believed was right.

He loved nature and he taught us to love and appreciate the outdoors. If there was a new park opening in San Antonio, he would take us to see it. He was an avid reader of non-fiction and he instilled in me the love of reading and the power of the written word. He was an advocate for his family and was successful in his actions. Most of all Dad loved our mom and never quite got over losing her. They are together in rest and in perfect peace. I love you Dad.
