Eduardo Godina

“ Hello. My name is Eddie Godina. I am Yvonne Godina's son, making me one of his great-grandchildren. If there's anything I've learned from watching him it was 1. The way he looked at my grandma Velazco as if he was falling in love with her all over again, and 2. Every time I saw him he was always laughing or smiling. I wasn't fortunate enough to know his whole life story, but knowing that he was World War II Veteran brings me to believe, and know fully, in my heart that when he loved you, whether as a friend or a family member, he loved with his whole heart. I love you grandpa. I'm sad you're gone but filled with peace knowing you are where you're meant to be, with whom you need to be with. Thank you for your love, not only for me but for your country. ❤️
