“ It has now been a year and we know Paula no longer hurts. She is walking with her Lord and enjoying everything her faith had told her would come true. Oh how it does hurt to be left behind when we had done everything together from the play pen to our lives as senior citizens. Such as easy person to love has left a great legacy for all to follow. Rest in Peace dear cousin as you have earned it.

“ *Paula was such a kind & humble friend. I worked at Converse Elementary with Paula for many, many years. She always had time to listen & was always available for students, families, and teachers alike. She handled so many responsibilities with grace & professionalism. I am a better person because of my friendship with Paula. Her devotion & deep love for her family was very evident.
I am praying for God's peace & for your memories of Paula to sustain & comfort you all now & in the days to come.
With much love,

I worked with Paula for many years at Converse Elem. we had professional conversations, but our personal and heartfelt conversations were MUCH more meaningful. “ Some of my favorite memories of Paula were from the road trips that we used to take with our other cousin, Iris, down around Lavaca and Yoakum and that area to look at old family graves at cemeteries and to browse through the libraries down there to find family history information.

One favorite memory was a conversation she and I had during one of those trips where I was feeling especially down on myself about my mothering skills with my children. She assured me in such a sweet way that I was far from the worst mother, as I was feeling like I was at the time. Her encouraging words will always be a very comforting memory for me for the rest of my life.

It saddens me tremendously that she is no longer with us, but I am so thankful for the years that we did get to live together in this life as cousins. I know she will be missed by many.

“ My memories of Paula are those of a humble, dedicated, loving, and honest person who was a ray of sunshine to all. I met Paula at Converse Elem where she dedicated herself to the entire student body as a counselor. Paula was also a dedicated and loving person to her entire family. I'll always cherish the weekend trips we made to College Station to watch the Aggies play at Kyle Field. As everyone knows, James is a die hard Aggie fan, therefore, he was ecstatic and such a joy during our trips. Just to see her son in such a joyous mood made Paula relax and delight in the fun filled weekend trips. She was proud of James as he explained to me the football plays of the game. I'll always cherish these happy moments with Paula and James. Thank you, Paula

“ Some of my best memories were just going to Luby's with Paula. I've done so much with her it's hard to recount. She and my mom Iris were pretty close. She always had a funny take on things. Very humorous. I remember going to Canyon Lake with her and David as one of my first memories. I remember her shaking her head as she raised two boys. She was definitely up for the task.

Paula was always a cousin I looked up to. She was smart and kind. Some of my favorite memories are from times we spent at our grandmothers home in Karnes City, TX. Paula was a little older but she was always patient with me and included me. She had a kind heart. In our adults years as we both became parents I remember how much she loved her sons and the example she was for other mom's. Even during challenging times in her life she never felt sorry for herself. The well-being of her sons and husband was often her motivation. May she Rest In Peace and know she was dearly respected and loved.

I always looked up to Paula as my older cousin. She was beautiful, smart, and kind and someone to aspire to be like when I grew up. When I was in fourth grade, I was so surprised and honored one day to look up and find out that my beautiful cousin, Paula was going to do her student teaching in my classroom for that semester. I really enjoyed getting to see her in the classroom as my teacher. She went on to be very successful in her teaching career. When we were growing up and had family gatherings at our grandmothers house in Karnes City, she and Iris would give us special attention and we felt so lucky to have them to learn from and lookup to. I always admired Paula as a wife and mother. She was truly devoted to her family and she loved them very much.

Cousins Iris, Paula and I were born months apart in 1947. we lost contact over the years, but I remember the fun we had when we were kids going trick or treat with Paula on Halloween. The time we went to cousin Wilber's baseball game and the Christmas gatherings at our grandmother's house in Karnes City..... good times and good memories.

Paula was my mentor when I was enrolled at St Mary,s University to become a school counselor. With her I learned soo much! She let me work with children and showed me how to encouraged them to spek and tell me their stories, etc. Paula was an excellent role model. From her I learned so much!! Adjectives that described her, I often remember, were loyalty, patience, sensitivy, and listener. After I retired from SISD, I worked with Paula as a volunteer. We worked for hours together,and we became the best of friends. We would eat lunch together at the school library, and I was always impressed with her gentle friendly manner toward everyone.We would also talk about our sons, etc. To this day, my husband will tell you how jmuch I learned from Paula, and how much I respected her. Now she is resting and she can pray for all of us. Ron and I send to Ronnie, David and James our deepest sympathies. Paula left a wonderful legacy. and beautiful memories Her whole family must be very proud of the wonderful memories and wonderful example she left behind.
