

Paula G. Solis

January 25, 1929 - November 5, 2018

Paula G. Solis went to be with the Lord, on Monday, November 5, 2018 at the age of 89. She is preceded in death by her husband Marcelino Solis Jr, father Francisco Garza and mother Estefana Perez Garza., sisters: Concepcion (husband Ernesto) Emilia (husband Nicholas), brother Francisco (wife Irma) Garza and brother-in-law Valente Alaniz. She is survived by her son, Marcelino A Solis (Marc), daughter, Imelda Solis, daughter-in-law, Jeanette P Solis, grandchildren: Ashley, Jarid, Tatiana and Dario. Sister, Maria Luisa Alaniz, Brother, Carmen Garza, and many nieces and nephews Paula was always known as a “hard and dedicated worker”. This started early in her life as she went to work as a laborer at the age of 13 picking cotton in the fields for pennies a pound. She later had long tenures working at Dickies and at the Edgewood School District where she primarily worked with Kinder through 4th grade. She loved her family, especially her grandkids. She was a member of the Society of the Brown Scapular at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Little Flower. She was a feisty, strong, independent woman who had a long-fulfilled life, was a woman of God and great faith. She had a serious demeanor that stemmed from her hardening childhood however she never failed to make a good laugh. She loved with all of her heart and always spoke her mind no matter what”. Paula was known for always passing along “compliments “and “kind words “to everyone, especially her loved ones. RIP Paula G Solis. I am certain of this. God has said “Well done, my good and faithful servant! Come and share your master’s happiness! “Our family would like to thank the Doctors at the Mays Cancer Center, especially Sukeshi Patel Arora, Laura Tenner, Mio Kitano, the Team at Kindred Hospice and the care at Sorrento Rehabilitation Center. Visitation will be Friday, November 9, 2018 from 1pm – 5pm at the Alamo Funeral Chapel, 624 N. Alamo St. with a rosary being held at 7p at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Little Flower, 906 Kentucky (off Culebra and Zarzamora St.) Mass of the Resurrection will be held Saturday, November 10, 2018 at 10am at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Little Flower.
