“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Pauline Kosub.

“ *My Aunt Pauline (I never called her Aunt) was more like the big sister that I never had.
I was the ring bearer at her wedding. I was 8, she was 17. We shared so much in those early years. She was the first baseman on Joskes softball team, (I was the batgirl).
We played volleyball for St Cecalias Men's Clib team for many years. We took Cynthia to all the games. But the thing I want to say about Pauline is, i never have met any mother more devoted to her child than she was. God knew that placing Cynthia in Pauline and Butch's care, was the right thing to do. Rest In Peace now, Pauline.
