November 25, 1921 - March 21, 2009

PAULINE FAVREAU MARTINEZ

On March 21, 2009 our beloved mother and grandmother, affectionately known as "Meme" went into the arms of our Lord. She was born at home during a blizzard to Blanche St. Martin and Leon Favreau both deceased in Southbridge, MA. on Nov. 25, 1921. She graduated from Mary C. Wells High School in 1939. After becoming a nurse she worked at Massachusetts General Hospital where she met her husband Dr. Rafael Martinez Zamudio deceased. She lived in Mexico City for more than 30 years where she raised her children. Subsequently, she moved to San Antonio where she lived for many years and worked at Community Hospital. Pauline spoke, French, English and Spanish. She loved to travel and could cook Mexican as well as New England dishes. On various occasions she drove her children from Mexico City to visit her family in Massachusetts. She belonged to St. Luke's Catholic Church where she made many friends and devoted much of her time. Her most treasured moments were when she was surrounded by her loving family. She lived a full and memorable life. She is survived by her children Andrea Castro Enrique, deceased, Carla Martinez Rubio Corky, Kathleen Fabian Martinez deceased and Rafael L. Martinez Margarita, grandchildren Tatiana, Enrique and Miguel Castro, Pauline and Maria-Alexandra Rubio, Andrea Elise Martinez and Pablo and Carla Martinez and 3 great grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. In lieu of flowers a
