

Pedro G. Camarillo

July 20, 1944 - December 30, 2020

Pedro G. Camarillo was a special gift from God to the Guadalupe Z. Camarillo family. He left this world suddenly on December 30, 2020 to join our heavenly God.

Pedro was very outgoing, humble and loving. He always wore a smile and his hand was always out to greet you. He had many accomplishments such as participating in the Special Olympics. He loved music especially Rock and Roll. Pedro had a sharp mind and his recollection was exceptional. He remembered everyone's birthday and could calculate on the spot your age and day of the week your birthday will fall on next year. But the most important accomplishment was Pedro's ability to bring people together. He could make you smile and his love for people was astonishing.

Pedro taught his family and friends humility and love. He was a simple man but unforgettable.

He was born to Guadalupe Camarillo Zamora and Lucila Ocejo Camarillo on July 20, 1944 in Eagle Pass, Texas. He is survived by his brothers and sisters, Irene Vidal (Abel), Lucille Barrios (Jesse), Raymond Camarillo (Cindy), Mary Garza (Henry) and Lupe Rocha (Veronica); numerous nephews and nieces; and cousins. As well as his special friends at SouthWest Texas Community Living Home on Lake Sunset Court in San Antonio, Texas.
