“ Memories of my grandpa start with as a child getting raspas from the ice cream truck-his favorite being pineapple, blizzards from DQ, barbacoa sundays with Dunkin' Donuts-his favorite apple crumb, drinking folgers coffee anytime of the day. I remember planting a little garden next to his huge garden while he planted okra, tomatoes, and okra! He always had a green thumb in gardening! Seeing a squirrel pass through the yard or tree will remind me of when he would get mad of them destroying his crops! Remembering him show me how to start a lawn mower and checking if it has enough gasoline, lol! He always knew his tools and machines! Memories of watching him sit on the swing enjoying the breeze and watering his grass! Remembering him on his favorite recliner watching CNN news while cracking pecans, enjoying tacos while placing plenty of salt to make sure they were flavorful, hot sauce on his eggs, enjoying watermelon outside on a hot summer day! I'll always remember him holding my son Kayden for the first time at the hospital! I love you my grandpa! Till we meet again in heaven!
