“ grandpa always wanting a hamburger from the corner store. first thing he would always say "his gotta go to work" or when I would pick on him he "was gonna tell his mother". always talking about going to California and always asking "where's the beer at", good times always a loving great person and man . will definitely miss your humor. thank you for all you did for all of us. Glad we had that talk and drink awhile back.

*you get to be with grandma again .
