“ I was so sad to hear of Mr. Padilla Passing. He was known as (Mr. Rudy) Our Neighbor Ice Cream Man or Raspa Man In My hometown Of Poteet Texas. I was a little girl age of 5 when he would drive a white ice cream truck down our street Loretta Estell . He continued for many years. Rudy always knew our favorite ice cream and how many scoops mine was the triple chocolate. Everyone in town knew him as Rudy and he knew us by our names he saw us as children to grown adults and even got to give our children ice cream and grand children. My Condolences To his family. May Mr Rudy R.I.P We will always remember you and never forget how kind you were and even those who didn't have enough to buy out of your heart of kindness you would still give. Now your In Heaven serving ice cream to all the little children

“ My Dear Sweet Old Man. My Gramps. I will miss our conversations and all the stories and jokes you have shared with me over the years. Your laughter always made my days better. You loved the life you lived, and you lived your life well. Thank you for all you have taught me. Thank you for loving Jacob and Samuel the way that you did. Mostly, thank you for loving me like only a Grandpa can-fiercely and wholeheartedly.
Love Always,
Your Granddaughter,
Stephanie

Oh Rudy, you were such a good friend. I remember him laughing so hard. I told him my brother told me, if you can learn to whistle loud I'll buy you a raspa with ice cream. Guess what I was about 5 and I learned to whistle loud enough to stop Rudy! Even after I married and had my 2 kids, he'd still come around! You will be missed. R.I.P. Rudy.

“ I knew him since I was a little girl I would hear his brown truck a block away and I would sit on my grandmas porch waiting for him. We knew him as “Rudy” but I learned later that was actually his sons name but literally everyone in Pleasanton knew him by “Rudy”. He was always so sweet and know and loved by all of his Pleasanton customers he literally knew us by name. May he Rest In Peace

“ This is truly sad. I made a Facebook post about him a few months ago trying to locate him but was unsuccessful. Rudy was such a kind man. He was a big part of our childhood and I will forever remember him. My twin sons, now almost 19, met him as well. He will be missed by so many. Rest peacefully Rudy.

“ My childhood and my kids childhood is full of memories of “Rudy” as we knew him. I often wondered what happened to him as we had not seen him in the last 2 or 3 years. My heart breaks to see this! But I know where he is, where all the good, sweet people go. My he Rest In Peace
