“ The few times that he came to the barbershop and we had the opportunity to speak I could tell that he loved his family dearly and had a strong love for the Lord. Our brother in Christ may have left us here on earth but we shall see him again in Heaven's Glory. We send our prayers your way and we pray God gives you the strength that you need to endure during this difficult time.

*We were privileged to meet Sgt. Pedro G. Ruiz a few months ago at the Barber shop. He was a man that commanded our respect, we felt honored to meet this man who had fought for our Country during a time of war. We know that his family and his Lord were dear to Him. We honor this Great American for his faithful service. We sensed that the Spirit of the Lord was upon him. Rest in Peace my Brother. We send our love and prayers to the Ruiz family.
