

Pedro Reymundo Zamarripa

August 8, 1986 - April 25, 2010

Zamarripa

Pedro Reymundo Zamarripa born on August 8, 1986 went to be with the Lord on April 25, 2010 at the age of 23 years. His love for cars and their modifications along with his love for computers was only surpassed by his love for family and friends. Victim of a drunk driver; taken the same way his brother was four years earlier, his name and memory will live on forever through the efforts of his friends and family who will seek endlessly to erase these types of injustices. The further tragedy is that he was on his way to becoming one of Texas' educators and those children whose lives he would have touched are now at a loss.

He is survived by his beloved parents Pedro and Christi Zamarripa; grandfather Santos Rodriguez; grandmother Andrea Beltran; sister Carolina Zamarripa; brother Pedro Zamarripa, Jr.; fiancée Lisa Molina; his nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of friends.

“ Christie & Pedro,

I am so sorry for your loss. I cannot imagine what you both are going through. But remember it was your love that brought Pete into this world and it will be your love that will keep his memory alive. I hope you both look to each o

“ Christi and Pedro,

My heart broke for you when I saw your interviews on t.v. What you are going through is so unimaginably difficult. Time and prayer will get you through this difficult time. I know nothing can ever fill the void that has been left,
