

Priscilla C. Goldsmith

June 12, 1925 - December 23, 2020

Priscilla Crea Goldsmith passed peacefully in her sleep on Wednesday, December 23 in San Antonio Texas at the age of 95.

Priscilla is survived by children, Dr. Gregory S. Goldsmith and his wife Dixie of McAllen, Brenda Goldsmith Hocott and her husband Richard of San Antonio, Eric Goldsmith and his wife Mable of San Antonio, Stephen Goldsmith of San Antonio. Beloved grandchildren, Gregory S. “Dos” Goldsmith Jr and his wife Sarah, India Goldsmith, Natalie Hocott Irwin and her husband Jeffrey, Haley Hocott and her fiancé Dallas, Jackson Hocott and his wife Katayun, Jordan Goldsmith, Melodie Wells, Shannon Wells, and Georgia Wells. Great-grandchildren, Annabelle, Maxx, Scarlett, Lily, Camilla and Catherine. Priscilla was the youngest child of Tarrant Cecil and Myra Louise Crea, born on June 12, 1925 in San Antonio, Texas. Beloved brothers, Robert D Crea, John Pomroy “Jack” Crea, and Thomas Vickery “Tommy” Crea preceded her in death. She attended Jefferson High School and later attended University of Texas at Austin studying Music.

Priscilla was an accomplished concert pianist, and taught private piano lessons for 60 plus years. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and an honorary life member of the Tuesday Musical Club.

Priscilla was a dedicated wife and a beloved mother to her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She will lay to rest next to her husband, Allen George Goldsmith, at Mission Park South.

In loving memory, please send donations to the San Antonio Tuesday Musical Club, <https://satmc.org/>

Tribute Wall

MS

“ Mrs. Goldsmith was my piano teacher for 10 years. She helped nurture my musical abilities from 4th grade to my freshman year of college. She was a wonderful teacher. I have many great memories from our lessons and recitals. I am grateful to have had the opportunity to study under someone of her experience. I will think of her often when I find myself in front of the piano keys. I will keep practicing. Rest well, Mrs. Goldsmith.

*Sincerely,
Meredith Schnuriger*

Meredith Schnuriger - July 31, 2021 at 06:44 PM