“ I knew you most of my life, since we were running amok in Children’s Church at Victory. 6-8 was never the same!! You were always a bright shining LED light when I traveled to all the conferences. Even though we hardly talked after my family left the church when I was in need your generous heart opened doors for me when I was in need. I love you more than I ever said and knowing your gone is harder than I’ll ever get to tell you. Miss you Rach!! You were the big sister I never had. My only joy in all this is know you are no longer suffering. All my love, Walli “ Saying farewell to my friend yesterday was heartbreaking. Rachel was beautiful, as always. But I wasn’t ready to see her for the last time. God said Rachel’s wings were ready. It was her time to receive them. Rest in heavenly peace my friend.

Rachel, a person full of love and a wonderful friend. I’ll forever cherish her memories.
As Rachel went thru her struggles, she said I was her “Firecracker”, because I lifted her spirits and encouraged her. But during her end, Rachel became mine. Thank you Zen for making that conversation possible. Also, thanks for inviting me into your home. Everyone there was so loving, especially Rachel’s favorite niece.
May God bless each of you with comfort and strength.

“ From the 1st time I met Rachel, I knew she was a spirited individual and full of life and energy. We clicked!! Even after I left the company we continued to stay in touch and became SNAPCHAT Buddies.
We had an amazingly awesome streak going. My heart stopped for a moment when I learned her fight was over. She is truly missed and was truly a remarkable woman!!!!
