“ Big momma was an inspiration to all who knew her. She will forever be remembered by her thoughtfulness and ability to help anyone who needed it. She would give the shirt off her back. While it would be selfish for me to say, that I wish it wasn't her that was taken from us all too soon, I know that He choose her because she was in pain. Now you can fly high with the angels and dance freely! We love you Big Momma, thank you for being the grandmother I never had. Fly High and until we meet again. Save us a spot!
