“ *Raimundo Hernandez was my x father in law. I want to thank him for always being their for me and my daughters during our hard times thru prayer and always helping where ever he could. he was not only my father in law but like a father to me. you will be missed. I'll always remember our long talks and breakfast. but I know you are in heaven rejoicing and looking after all of us. love you always. rest in peace old man.
love always Clara*

“ I may not have been as close to my Grandpa as I could've/should've been. But the memories I do have of him were all good. Most of them were of him always at the church preaching and praising God and he always had his bible with him. I can still hear him saying "Praise God" with a smile on his face. I remember him praying for me at my Sweet 16. And him going to the hospital and praying over my son when he was born premature and in the nicu and saying that Eli will be a great man. He especially loved the fact that I needed Elijah Isaiah after 2 prophets of the bible. He even came over to bless our house when we first purchased it. No matter what, he was always willing to help others in anyway he could...May you rest in peace Grandpa Hernandez.
