“ *Who is that man with the gentle face.
Who in his youth kept a hectic pace.
To provide for his family all that he could.
Who is that man so giving and good!*

*Who is that man with the ready smile.
Who always took time to sit for awhile!
He was there when his family needed him there.
Who is that man with the gray in his hair?*

*Who is that man who encouraged us all.
And helped us up when we took a fall.
Spending a lifetime extending his hand.
Who is that kind, compassionate man?*

*Who is that man who we all adore.
The man who these words of devotion are for?
I'll tell you with all of the love that I can.
"My Dad" is that truly exceptional man!*

*I love you!

Ralph was such a joy to be around. It was a pleasure to sit and have a conversation with him. He was a very likeable person and will be greatly missed. His passing took us by surprise. I would do anything to visit him and give him one last haircut. I will cherish those memories forever. ❤️

"Our Dad" is Sandy and I's (Christie) hero and first softball coach. We can never repay you for the life lessons you have taught us. Because of your competitive nature, you taught us to always work hard and strive for the best!! We will always love basketball and Softball as our dad, our hero and our coach once did. We will love you always, as we are a product of YOU! Love you always, your twin daughters.
