“ Ramiro (Ray Ray, Cowboy Ray), such a great respectful and kind hearted man. He was filled with so much love for his family and his Beloved Wife Elvia (she made the hottest tacos!) Ray was very proud to be a husband & Father. But he once told me that his greatest blessing was being a Grandfather. On August 4, 2025 he called to tell me he was a Grandfather again & was so proud that this time the bundle of joy was a boy. Ray bragged about his love for his Granddaughter and how much he & his wife loved being grandparents. He praised his wife, children and grandchildren. I had the pleasure of working with Ray & he would make our entire office laugh. He always told the best jokes and was always willing to lend a helping hand. Ray, you will always be in our thoughts. Our deepest condolences, thoughts and prayers are with the Salinas Belmares family and friends. May the comfort of his memory continue to lift your heart and spirit through this difficult time. -Ann Perez & Family

“ Rest in peace, Ramiro. You were an awesome friend and neighbor. Ramiro always greeted us with a good morning or good afternoon. We often shared a bit of neighborhood news and talked about chicken and life in general. We know Ram (Kenny called him Ram) enjoyed music. He often asked about my mom's health. Kenny and I enjoyed watching Ramiro interact with his family and friends when they had parties. He loved his wife Elvia, all his kids, and his grandkids. We especially enjoyed watching him jumping on the trampoline with his granddaughter or swimming in the kiddie pool. He spent a lot of time with his granddaughter. You will be missed by many family members and friends. Thank God for the memories he left us.

“ Heaven truly gained a wonderful man with the biggest heart. It was a pleasure and a honor to get to call you my Tio, Ray. I always told Richard you were the sweetest man always made everyone feel welcomed. Im so thankful that our kids got to know the man that my husband saw as a father. I know youre happy with your mom and dad up there but you left a mark down here that noone will ever be able to fill. We love you Tio Ray and will always remember you. Please give Vanny a hug from me. From the Salinas Family. Mandy, Richard and kids
