“Ramiro was the most reliable friend and union brother I was blessed to have. We shared many rewarding moments in our goal of improving our schools for the students and securing better pay and working conditions for school staff. For over 40 years we were friends until the day he left us to be with his late wife, Velma. I will miss the laughs and the fun we had throughout that time. His religious faith and his devotion to his family sustained my own belief in the goodness of people and that the world is a better place because he lived with us. I will miss you, good buddy.”
