“ I got to know Ramiro & Teresa because they were patients of Dr. Roberto San Martin. Then I would see them at St Matthew's church and got to know them a little bit better. I remember Ramiro's sense of humor and bright smile. I would often look for Teresa at her Costco job so that I could stop & visit with her. She assured me of her prayers when my husband passed away. Now it's my turn to pray for them! May they Rest In Peace in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ. Prayers for the family as well as they mourn this great loss. 🙏

“ My deepest condolences to you and the family. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. I have put you on my prayer wall. I watched the rosary and what y'all said about them both is just as I remember them. Tío Ramiro always joking and Tía Terry always with a good arm heart. I still remember on my wedding day your dad gave me a note for the dollar dance that said “I owe you”. The both of them just wanted everyone to be happy. They will be missed. Love y'all. -

“ Ron, my deepest condolences to you and to Delia and Joseph. I am saddened at the passing of your parents. I pray that during this time, you all will find comfort and peace that only our Lord can give. Your mom and dad were great parents. Great people. There are many memories I have of your parents. Your mom always had a loving heart and your dad had a great sense of humor. They will always be remembered.

Take Care and God Bless you and your families.

“ Your parents will always hold a special place in our hearts. May you all continue to follow their footsteps. I'll always remember your mothers loving nature and your fathers silliness. His "blah" to Martha will never be forgotten.

“ Delia, Ronnie and Joseph my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Your parents were beautiful souls inside and out. This year I saw them at a restaurant and I couldn't believe they had recognized me. They looked great and were happy as ever. Their smiles and warm hellos were just as I remembered during our childhood visits. Sending you Prayers for strength and peace during this difficult time.

“ Our sincere condolences to the Carrizales and Soto families. Theresa was our cousin. We have fond memories traveling to Lockhart to visit our aunt, uncle, and cousins. It wouldn't be a trip, of course, without our dad taking us to the local Lockhart meat market to eat "chorizo". We are older now and still continue to make our trips to Lockhart, whenever possible, to eat "chorizo". Our cousins have all moved away from Lockhart, but we still have wonderful memories of visiting them in the town of Lockhart. If we're lucky, we might see them at the market. In November of last year, we were fortunate to celebrate Andrea's 94th birthday. We had a great celebration. We visited with Theresa, Santa, and Cruz, along with other cousins. Our prayers are with these families. May the Lord give you all comfort and strength on your losses. God Bless you all!
