Dad served in the Air Force overseas in Turkey

He worked at Kelly AFB and USAA

Graduated from St. Phillips College with an Associate Degree

Volunteered with his wife, Maria, at St. Mary Magdalene Catholic Church with the St. Vincent De Paul Organization

He was an amazing father, a full tank of gas on an early Saturday morning meant we were going on another adventure. The whole family would load up and we drove in any direction to find a watering hole that we could swim or jump around in or fish. Have a picnic and continue swimming and then drive back home. He would take us to the drive-in theater with a box of chicken and some sodas and we had the best times. Dad always said if you are sick there are 2 things that will cure you. "The sun and the ocean". Which is why we were always outside or at the beach.

Ramon was known for his love of cooking and b-b-q. His specialty was his unique b-b-q chicken recipe. He also made a tasty menudo. Food always brought the family together, so he enjoyed cooking for us.

Tio Ramon always reminds me of sports and chicken. Of course his bbq chicken was the best. The smell and site that comes from when you peel back the foil is etched in my mind.

He loved to talk sports when ever I saw him. He even coached me in soccer as a kid. I feel bad that I quit on him. But I remember having so much pride in the Prospect Hill Yellow Jackets T-shirt. Tio never said anything about me quitting on him. Ever. He always made feel special. He probably said "Don't worry about it. Here's a box of Cracker Jacks".

I pray for all of you and he will always have a special place in my heart.

“ Dad's favorite treat to give us growing up was a box of Cracker Jacks. If we were sick we got medicine and Cracker Jacks. If we got in trouble and were put in time out/ spanked we got Cracker Jacks. If we asked to stay out at night and play with neighborhood kids he said NO and gave us Cracker Jacks. I love and miss you Dad, but I know you are with Mom now. That's the only place you ever really wanted to be, with Mom❤️
