

Randall Everett Goldman

November 14, 1966 - September 5, 2020

Randall Everett Goldman passed away on September 5, 2020 in Boerne, Texas. He was 53.

He was born on November 14, 1966 in San Antonio and attended Bel-Aire High School in Houston. He joined the Coast Guard in 1987 and served in the Honor Guard at The White House before completing his tour on the USCGC Durable out of St. Petersburg, FL. In 1995 he received a B.S. with honors in Hotel and Restaurant Management from Johnson & Wales University. He spent the last 25 years serving the hospitality industry in renovation and restoration of historic properties, as CEO and mentor providing career opportunities, as community servant sitting on numerous boards and assisting non-profits and friend and neighbor to all.

He is survived by his mother Jeannine Ackman Bergt and her spouse David; his beloved wife, Jennifer Lynn Goldman; their son, Liam Everett Goldman; a sister, Amber Kittles; and brothers, Paul Goldman and D'Andre Bergt.

He was predeceased by his father, Larry Goldman.

“ My husband and I were among the first to meet Randall when he was hired by Fish Restaurant. Our friendship/relationship continued to the day he left. Along the way, we were honored to meet his beautiful wife, Jennifer, and witness the pride he felt for his son, Liam. We watched his star SOAR in the hospitality field, then witnessed its downward spiral...something we couldn't fathom was justified...then or now.

I feel fortunate to have reconnected with him via Linked In this past year. He expressed deep happiness for the new turn his life had taken. He gave no indication of the illness he must have been fighting beneath the surface.

Therefore, I was shocked, as well as deeply saddened, to hear of his untimely passing. I can only wish Jennifer and Liam wonderful memories of a very special husband and Father to carry them through the years ahead.

“ Randall is an inspiration to all of us. I can't count the number of times I saw him do something selfless, swoop in and save someone from a crisis, or simply brighten someone's day. He never sought recognition, often insisting that the beneficiary never know the source of the generosity they were experiencing. He loved and honored his family and was an example of how to live well in good times and in challenging circumstances. He had impeccable taste and a deep understanding of how environment affects people. He said what he meant and meant what he said. You could count on him for an honest answer. He spent so much of his life taking care of others and we can be joyful that now, in the loving arms of God, he is taken care of.

“ Dear Randall, You were one of my favorite students, ever, and we became such good friends as your influence in the hospitality community grew. You could always see a way to help, to make things better for your neighbors, other veterans, the organizations you served. You made friends wherever you went and you will never be forgotten by any of them. You had the heart of a servant and a quick mind that enabled you to easily see the solution to big problems. I will miss knowing that you are in the world. I will continue to send love to Jennifer and Liam, as they learn how to live without you.

“ My friend Randall Goldman passed away on September 5th in San Antonio, leaving his wife Jennifer and ten-year old son, Liam. He was only 53.

I met Randall way back when Patrick Properties first opened the American Theatre on King Street and I worked at an engraving store on John Street. We served together on the Upper King Street merchants association at that time, and then again years later as co-chairs for Happy New Year Charleston.

Randall was always complimentary and kind to me and always made me smile. Our dogs even met one day at the old Starbucks on East Bay and almost looked like one another!

My heartfelt condolences go out to Jennifer and Liam and to all who knew him. If there is ANYTHING I can do for you, please let me know.

Randall Goldman will certainly be missed by me.

“ Dear Jennifer and Liam,
Your dear husband and father was a generous, kind and joyful man. His passion and support for our hospitality and food world during the years I was at the James Beard Foundation were admirable. Jennifer, I have many great memories of the fun we shared at awards events and dinners. And I recall how often he would proudly and lovingly show me the latest photo of Liam. My deepest sympathies for your terrible loss. I am sorry I did not know Randall had been valiantly fighting cancer and that I had lost contact with you once I retired from JBF. I am keeping you in my prayerful thoughts this week.

“ First of all, I want to say how deeply sorry I am to hear of Randall's passing and my heartfelt condolences go out to his family. I met Randall here in Charleston, SC as he was a member of our Board of Directors and served as our President for a time. Throughout the years Randall was apart of our organizational family he always exuded positivity and genuinely cared for people. I remember our numerous chats and how he took the time to listen and offer advice. I admired him for his giving spirit; he was so involved with the community and gave so much of his time to try and make things better for everyone. He was a very special guy and I regret not keeping in touch after he left Charleston. However, I will have my memories to reflect upon and hope he is resting in peace with others who have gone on too soon. I miss you my friend, rest well!

“ We remember Randell in all good ways. He was generous and thoughtful and caring to all, but also personally to Bob and myself. All the efforts he made to make Andrew and our whole family welcomed and cared for when we first meant Laura and her family, was exceptional. That would definitely include Jennifer, I'll not forget her at Isabelle's baby shower, for instance. Randell was hard working and devoted, and he leaves and big hole. May God's grace and comfort be with you.

“ I thought the world of Randall. When the planters were stolen from the front of my shop, Randall replaced them out of the goodness of his heart with lovely new ones. He said that it was only one neighbor helping another. What a wonderful, decent, well-liked person he was. The world will surely miss him.

“ Jennifer, what a tragic loss... My thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family and all of the people that Randall touched. He always had nice words to say about everybody who was always kind and gentle. He will be missed..Do not stand at my grave and weep

I am not there. I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush

I am the swift uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry;

I am not there. I did not die.

“ Jennifer,

I met your darling husband when he saw my Craig's List ad and came to my house on Wentworth to buy a leftover bolt of upholstery fabric. He said it was exactly what you were looking for to re-do some chairs. I made a new friend that day as we talked and laughed for about an hour. What a wonderful and special person. Whenever I saw him around town and at events he was always wearing a big smile.

My heart goes out to you and your family.

“ Jennifer and Liam,

My heart is with you. I am so saddened and heartbroken for you. Randall was such a happy and lovely man. The love between you two was always evident and a true testament to all. He was also such a great father. Liam was so blessed to have him as a father. He was always there for him and gave him so many great experiences.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting and working with Randall while he was a student at the Charleston Campus of Johnson & Wales University. He was a kind, gentle and passionate student who had amazing ideas and desires for the hospitality industry. As a student, he presented himself well. He worked diligently to learn as much as he could learn and share about culinary arts and hospitality.

I was shocked to discover he passed away. In July, he shared he was in remission and doing well, but -- that was Randall Goldman's style. Always positive, with an inspiring attitude, even when life kicked him in the rear. He always bounced back up and survived.

I will miss Randall. My condolences to his beautiful wife, Jennifer, and his adorable son. Now, Randall will rise above us. May God bless the family.

“ Randall was “beautiful people”. Rest well, my friend.

the most beautiful people we have known are who have known defeat, known suffering, known struggle, known loss, and have found their way out of the depths. These persons have an appreciation, a sensitivity, and an understanding of life that fills them with passion, gentleness, and a deep loving concern. Beautiful people do not just happen.
