“ I had only known Randy for a short time when he would come with Richard to get a haircut. I was amazed about how much he could tell you about movies,actors,actress,dates when it on tv and when it was canceled. He was like a walking encyclopedia. He joked alot and told crony jokes. He was entertaining. He was short in statured and it was not easy for him to lay back in the shampoo bowl without getting his back all wet. So we switch to have him stand next to the shampoo bowl and bend down to wash his hair. We joked that he needed to bring a snorkel so he could breath without getting water in his mouth. Afterwards he would sigh and say it felt good and that he survived from me trying to drown him. He made people laugh. He will be missed.

“ Some relationships are built on years of willingness to conform and perform.

But a relationship with Randy was a forever friendship that met you where you were, for who you were. A handshake or hug, or an occasional phone call or greeting card earned you a title of forever friend. He loved his friends and family unconditionally and whole heartedly. Randy could always lift your spirits with a joke or witty comment! I will greatly miss you RB. Please hold a space open in your new neighborhood in heaven for me. Sincerely, Donna Rae

“ Randy was such a beautiful person, with an amazing heart. He always had a smile and was happy to see anyone he came across. I will miss him and hearing his voice telling me to have a great day and telling me he loved me.

My condolences to the family during this time and may you find peace in treasured memories.

Richard and Glenda, you both have displayed such strength, love and patience when many times were difficult. You held on to faith and stayed positive. Donovan and I love you both.

*Dear Glenda,
The pain from the loss of a sibling is unbearable however, through love, prayers and faith the healing will come. The Lord will continue to shine HIS light upon you so that you may find peace and comfort. Please know you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. With love and best regards; your friend,
