“ I met Randy and Todd as a kid playing over at the Caffey house on Formosa. We played football, baseball, basketball, rode our mini bikes. Really great memories. I remember Randy being a pretty good diver off the high board at Melody Ranch too. As a retired Navy Chief I appreciate how much Randy loved his country and the military. Rest easy Brother. There is never enough words to explain how heartbreaking it is to hear of Randy's passing! I knew him for 50 years and can truly say he was liked by everyone who encountered his presence! Always went out of his way to help people. Very athletic and one heck of a sense of humor! My prayers are with his family and friends during this sad time! May God grace Randy as he graced everyone he knew! 🙏
