“ Cynthia and Ruben our heart felt condolences to the family. She was the best aunt. Thanks for sharing your parents with us. I will never forget when we were little and living in Mexico and she made sure every year we would have Thanksgiving, which she prepared and brought from San Antonio. Also as a little girl I thought she made the best jello with cream and fruit.. yummy. And the best remembrance I have is her faith, prayer and her passion and dedication for God. That's the best legacy she could have left us. My prayer for your comfort in this time of sorrow.

“ Grandma's House

I crawled in your house & you loved me & taught me "Jesus Loves His Little Children"

I stumbled over to your house, hand in hand with my parents & you loved me & caught me before I could fall

I ran over to your house & you loved me & taught me valuable lessons

I walked over to your house & you loved me & taught me about the acceptance of God

I walked over, I walked over.

I drove over & you loved me & we watched television & you cooked for us

I drove over & you loved me & you asked me how my first day of work went

I drove over & you loved me & told me that you missed me because I hadn't been by in a while

I drove over & you loved me & prayed over my life & my spirit

I drove over & loved you & missed you right away

I drove over & loved you & felt the emptiness of your house without your warmth to fill it

I drove over & loved you & held your hand in mine & you didn't grab mine back

I drove over & loved you & tears fell, they fell on me & they fell on you

I looked at you & loved you & felt peace

I looked at you & prayed over your life & your spirit

I touched you & knew our family would be okay

I touched you & felt your love from heaven above

I kissed you & thanked you for being my Grandma

I love you Grandma

*I miss you so much
