“ I love my Uncle Roy. I didn't seem him much be cause we lived so far but when I did he always made me feel like his most special nieces. I am sure all my cousins got that same feeling.

Uncle Roy has always been in my life. Always! As many know he lived three blocks from where we lived and my memory of him remains strong as I just saw him before Thanksgiving. His humor, his wit and his talented skill of making up words in Spanish that I thought was real, made us all laugh. He called me "Chale." or "Chuck or Chuckie." No one else called me that, and I will miss his very special greeting. When we were younger, he was our family fishing partner, joining my dad and us boys at Medina Lake, Canyon Lake or Pipes Creek. When I wasn't looking, he would tap my fishing pole and with excitement he would tell me, "Hey Chuckie you got a fish." :) What a prankster. My mom loved him, and he became one of my dad's best friends. He was there for them; they were there for him. Always a story, always a smile, always there. God Bless you Tio and thank you for always being in my life.
